

SOCIAL POLICY AND HEALTH

Key Statements

RCNA believes that social policy in relation to health should be underpinned by the elements of availability, accessibility, acceptability and quality.

RCNA recommends that social policy should guide the efficient use of resources within an equitable framework to achieve the best affordable health outcomes for all.

Link to Background, Rationale, References and other information as required.